

Are you a high school student interested in biotechnology and biomanufacturing? Apply now for the Dayton (bio)Manufacturing Awareness and Discovery Experience (DaytonMADE)!

Experience hands-on lab activities, guest speakers, a campus tour, an industry field trip, and more!

- 2-week summer camp: June 15-26th
- Full day camp (Mon-Fri) hosted at Wright State University
- Free registration, lunch, lab supplies, and a t-shirt
- Free transportation available from central pick-up locations
- Students may obtain up to 70 hours of work-based learning
- Students must have passed high school biology

2026 Applications are due May 2nd

Apply and learn more at www.ues.com/daytonmade

